HAROLD VAN PELT WILL BE DEPUTY CO. TREASURER

Harold Van Pelt, New Burlington Pike, will be chief deputy county treasurer under Miss Helen Dadds, treasurer-elect, when she assumes her office, September 6, Miss Dadds has announced.

The term of Frank A. Jackson, present treasurer, who has served two terms in that office, expires Saturday, September 3. Miss Dadds will take charge of the office Tuesday, September 6, since September 5 is a holiday.

Mr. Van Pelt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Van Pelt, New Burlington Pike, where he has lived since 1905. He was born in Port William. He graduated from Central High School, city, Columbus, two years and has Xenia, attended Ohio State University, where he was employed at his years special work at the Spencerian School of Accounting, Cleveland.

The new chief deputy recently returned from Cleveland, where he purchased a special course at the Spencerian School and was employed at the Brinks Express Co., Cleveland. Before going to Cleveland he served thirteen months as clerk in the office of County Auditor R. O. Wead, which has familiarized him with County House routine.

Because of his special training and his experience in the auditor's office, the new deputy is expected to carryably fill the position to which he has been appointed.

Although Miss Dadds was elected treasurer last November, due to the law fixing terms of the treasurer, almost a year has passed since her election before she takes office. She has not announced any further the personnel of her office force after she assumes charge of the office.

The new treasurer has been clerk in the office under Treasurer Jackson and also served during the term of Mrs. Carrie Faulkner, former treasurer. Other employees of Treasurer Jackson are Ralph George, Janestown, chief deputy and Miss Florence Swan, Xenia.

Montgomery County Fair Next Week

The Greatest Montgomery County Fair, which opens at Dayton on Labor Day, September 5th, running four days and four nights, will attract thousands of people to its gates throughout the Miami Valley. It is based on five attractions, replacing the old midway type of amusement with high-class, up-to-date and worthwhile entertainment for its patrons.

I. L. Holderman, secretary, informs us that all available space under the Grand Stand for the Automobiles, with the exception of the big Coliseum Building, has been taken and will house all of the leading makes of cars showing the newest and latest models in automobiles and trucks.

The big stock parade which includes all prize winners during Fair week, will be held on Thursday, September 8th, at 12:00 o'clock, in front of the Grand Stand, which show alone is worth the price of admission. Beckers' Municipal Concert Band will render concert during the morning, afternoon and evening during the entire four-day and four-night fair.

The fireworks will be the most elaborate and spectacular ever shown at any fair in the state of Ohio. Do not fail to see them. Different program each day and night.

A joint picnic of the Y. P. C. U. and the Y. L. M. S. of the U. P. church is to be held this evening at the home of Mr. O. A. Dobbins. Members of each organization are urged to present and meet at the U. P. parsonage at five o'clock.

Farm Land Brings Good Prices At Sale

The sale of six farms by the Tri-County Realty company, Mt. Sterling, held last week under the direction of Col. J. J. Yerian, of London, resulted in good prices for the land. It is announced today by officers of the company.

A total of 1116 acres of farm lands was sold at public auction in one of the most unusual sales held here in some years. Most of the land is within a few miles of Mt. Sterling and in a varied state of improvement.

The six farms averaged slightly better than $39 per acre for the entire lot, listed as follows:

Tract 1—R. E. Morain farm, 122 acres near Derby, to T. E. Riddle, average $138.50 per acre.

Tract 2—E. E. Corkwell farm of 111 acres southwest of Mt. Sterling, to H. H. Humphrey, West Liberty, Ohio, for an average of $75 per acre.

Tract 3—Charles McCafferty farm of 287 acres northwest of Mt. Sterling, to L. F. Reams, of Zanesville, Logan county, for an average of $79 per acre.

Tract 4—F. P. Dorn farm of 187 acres between Mt. Sterling and Madison Mills to John Albright, of Mt. Sterling, for an average of $99 per acre.

Tract 5—Clark farm of 264 acres east of Mt. Sterling, to a Newark man for $84 per acre.

Tract 6—McArthur farm of 185 acres south of Mt. Sterling, to a Mr. Price of Columbus, for an average of $120 per acre.

The sale totalled $107,224 for the 1116 acres—Madison Co. Press.

SHERIFF GETS 2 LIQUOR AUTOS

A Straight Eight Marmion roadster, new, and 31 gallons of corn liquor, which had been cached in the underbrush on the farm of Simeon Wolf, south tp., in the extreme western part of the county, were confiscated by Sheriff Obmer Tate Saturday night.

Officers, who had been hiding in ambush, closed in on the roadster when it was driven up a lonely road to the spot where the liquor was cached. The two men in the car broke and ran, making their escape through the fields.

Licenses plates on the car had been issued to Ray Wentz, 11 Davis st., Dayton, when Sheriff Tate held a warrant for unlawful possession of liquor. In Sheriff Tate's posse were Deputy Sheriff George Surden, Constable George Surden, Constable George Surden, Constable George Surden.

Kenneth Barr, road patrolman, took Thos. O. Lehighy, 35, Xenia, by surprise Tuesday while he sat in a parked Packard near the Cross road school house. Five gallons of whiskey cost the owner $500 when he pleaded guilty before Judge Wright. The car will be held by the Sheriff.

Crowds Attending State Fair This Week

Enormous crowds are in Columbus this week in attendance at the Ohio State Fair. The streets of the city are gaily decorated and parading bands are heard continuously.

The exposition will continue over Monday on account of the Labor Day celebration to be held at the fair grounds, starting with a big procession, six bands participating in same. Daily delegations visit the Capital and gather in the rotunda to admire the beauty of the Grecian Doric style of the building. The floor of the rotunda is of Tennessee red marble and contains 4,892 pieces. Around the rotunda are placed historic flags of our various wars. It was here in this same rotunda on April 25, 1865, that 50,000 people passed before the body of our martyred and beloved president, Abraham Lincoln.

Songs of Plain Folks

By James Lewis Hays

Rain

Rain! Oh, happy heart within me,
Hear it washing through the leaves,
Humming sweetly to the shingles,
Laughing down the grateful eaves,
Drooping broken, crops are rescued,
John is happy now once more,
On the porch he sits with Teddy,
And they play and watch it pour.

Oh, my fingers fly more lightly
As I do my little tasks,
And John's eyes are shining brightly—
Half a chance is all he asks.
He'll succeed—we'll be contented
At we've always planned we would
In the home we'll earn together
For it rains, and God is good.

SELINA MAN HAS APPENDICITIS OPERATION

Carl Kissell, manager of the Kissell elevator at Selma, underwent an operation for appendicitis in a Xenia hospital Tuesday. His condition is reported favorable.

During Mr. Kissell's absence, the elevator is in charge of Alfred Clemens, South Charleston.

Rev. Humphrey Dean and family of Cleveland, and Mrs. Bobb Jacoby of Gosa, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Sarah Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rishart, of Westside, Ill., spent Sunday and Monday with Rev. S. M. Ingman and family. Mr. and Mrs. Rishart were on their way to Pittsburgh, Pa.

Frank T. Tarbox, 74, ex-sheriff of Greene County, died at his home in Xenia, 242 North Galloway street, at 1:30 o'clock, Tuesday morning.

His health had been failing for five years but for the last year and a half his condition had been more serious.

Mr. Tarbox was born in Cedarville Township, October 15, 1853, the son of Samuel and Ruth Jackson Tarbox. He married Miss Leola Townsley, of Cedarville, and in 1895 moved to Xenia as deputy sheriff, having received the appointment under former Sheriff W. B. Reed. Mr. Tarbox was elected sheriff at the end of Mr. Reed's second term, and served four years in that office.

At the end of his second term, in the early part of 1907, he was appointed a patrolman on the Xenia police force, serving until he was appointed court bailiff by the late Common Pleas Judge C. H. Kyle. He retired about six years ago from that work.

He was a lifelong member of the United Presbyterian church and affiliated with the First church of Xenia.

He is survived by his widow; a daughter, Mrs. Scott Hudson, of Springfield, Mass., who has been at her father's bedside for the last six weeks; two brothers and a sister; David N., of Chicago; Harry, of Findlay; and Mrs. Lida Foley, of Selma.

The funeral was held Thursday and burial took place in Woodland cemetery.

Schools May Not Open In Some Counties

The advisability of delaying the opening of the schools in Ohio, or at least in sections of the state most seriously affected by the epidemic of infantile paralysis, is now being considered by the officials of the state department of health. It was announced here today.

Dr. John E. Monger, state health director, and Dr. C. P. Robbins, chief of the division of communicable diseases, are to confer with public health experts this week on the question.

In view of the statement of the health department, issued today, against allowing their children to congregate, it is believed the school opening date may be delayed.

Reinhold and Tuscarawas counties, and the district of Norwood and Cincinnati have been most heavily affected.

Latest reports to the department show that 98 cases of infantile paralysis in the state.

Dr. Grube, county health director, says there are no cases in this county.

Greene County Loans Make Good Showing

Building and loan resources in Greene county increased $114,492.58 during the past 12 months, according to figures just issued through the Ohio Building Association League by J. W. Tannhill, state superintendent of building and loan associations.

The three building and loan associations in Greene county have total resources of $5,408,501.10. During the past three years these institutions loaned approximately $1,500,000 on first mortgage security on real estate and handled approximately $10,000,000 without the loss of a dollar to any depositor.

Building and loan associations in Ohio during the same period gained $100,847,000, making their total resources $1,041,000,000. "There was not a single building and loan association in Ohio last year," according to Mr. Tannhill's report. In his statement, Superintendent Tannhill says that this record for safety was unexcelled by any other financial group in the country.

HOWARD L. BULL DIES AT RICHMOND, INDIANA

Howard L. Bull, 74, died Friday night at his home of son, Guy Bull, in Richmond, Ind., following an attack of paralysis.

The deceased had suffered two lighter attacks at different intervals during the year, but would not leave his home in Springfield.

Some weeks ago he left his old home in Kokomo, Ind., to reside with his son.

The deceased was the son of Robert Scott and Ann Reid Bull, and was born near Cedarville, and was the youngest of six sons, and the last surviving member of the family.

When a young man he left this locality and located in Howard county, Ind., some fifty years ago. For nearly half a century he was engaged in the real estate and loan business and served one term as clerk of court in Howard county.

He is survived by three sons, Guy, of Richmond; Dr. Earl Bull, dentist and mayor of Linton, Ind.; and Glenn Bull, stock broker, Evanson, Ill. One daughter, Miss Elsie Bull, has of recent years made her home in Richmond. Mr. Bull's wife died about thirty-five years ago.

Short funeral services were held in Richmond, Monday morning, the body being taken to Kokomo, where services were held in the afternoon. Burial was at Crown Point cemetery, Kokomo.

LET'S KEEP THE BOAT RIDING STEADY

The gust of wind let loose against the referendum on the justice of peace salary bill will have a tendency to make the boat ride sideways with some danger of overturning. To keep the boat steady in its course the electorate should have all the facts from both sides before making a hasty decision.

There seems to be some soreness over the fact that the citizens of Ohio are to have a chance of expressing approval or disapproval of the justice salary graft law that if endorsed will make the income to justices, with not a cent invested, more than what a farmer can net on any 100 acres of land. That is the economic side of the question. Court for profit to officials or to the taxpayers?

The referendum is now a part of the constitution. Yet we are told the 115,000 signers to the petitions had no right to sign same and in so doing many did so under a misrepresentation, as if only the uninformed were asked to sign—a cutting reflection to the thousands of dry automobile owners who had no hesitancy in affixing their names. If the graft measure is all its sponsors claim it is, why then all this fume and fuss?

The charge is made that certain wet interests are responsible for the referendum, and not the automobile clubs backed by thousands of auto owners, members or not. The sponsors of the justice bill have shifted and making those who might have signed the petitions the issue instead of the bill itself. On the bases of personality the public should consider the friends of the sponsor of the bill, not the author, for they are not the one and same person. Senator (?) Marshall, who had the pleasure of having his name connected with a bill written by another person, charges that wet leaders are using the automobile clubs to hid behind. Ex-Senator Gardner, Cincinnati, is attorney for the Cincinnati Automobile Club. During Gardner's term he was floor-leader of the upper house and Senator (?) Marshall made a lengthy speech seconding Gardner for the honor. In that session Marshall had a prominent post on a utility committee named by utility lobbyists, one of whom was a former paid lobbyist for the Cincinnati liquor interests. This should give the public the low down on the wet and dry issue injected in the fight on the justice bill.

What the proposed bill provides, the average layman is not in position to even predict. That's the way laws are written now-a-days. They are written by attorneys for the use and profit of attorneys, wet or dry. The best legal advice we can get is that the bill does not provide for all that the sponsors claim for it. A well known dry judge in a nearby county informs us the bill is a disgrace to the legal profession and an insult to the United States Supreme Court, and will prove more costly to the tax payers than any possible profit that can be rightly earned by it.

Senator (?) Marshall says the justice salary bill was introduced a month before the United States Supreme Court held the old law unconstitutional. He says he agrees with Taft's view yet certain dry leaders are saying that Taft is wet. The Senator (?) also says it was offered to correct the old law in as much as there was some question about it being fair. The Anti-Saloon League officials, only part of them, endorse the graft law and leaders say they never attacked the old law. Yet the Supreme Court heard a league attorney defend the law when it was attacked and later held unconstitutional. Some where in the controversy is a place for the truth serum treatment.

When the bill was before the legislature the commercialized justice of peace lobby made itself prominent about the legislature. A score or more half-bred foreigners who had been reaping $5,000 salaries from motorists as well as liquor cases, and in a few instances officers of these courts, selling captured liquor to favorite and protected bootleggers, fought a desperate fight to have the bill providing for a $3,000 salary passed, in view of the Supreme Court putting them out of business. This angle should be taken into consideration also by the voters.

As a suggestion to the Anti Saloon League the public would welcome a statement about the famous liquor party at a Columbus hotel when the utility lobbyists honored the Fifth-Sixth Senator and others for voting to continue a corrupt utility rate making body in power that higher rates could be taken from the pockets of Ohioans for the enrichment of the telephone trust and gas companies. If the League and the Senator want to discuss personalities behind any movement, the electors will be pleased to hear about the utility liquor party.

Lesson for September 4

SOLOMON'S WISE CHOICE

LESSON TEXT—1 Kings 3:4-15
GOLDEN TEXT—Happy is the man who findeth wisdom and the man that gaineth understanding.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Solomon's Wise Choice.

JUNIOR TOPIC—A Young Man's Wise Choice.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Choosing Things Worth While.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Best Things in Life.

Following the death of David, Solomon was anointed king (1 Kings 1:35-40). David had failed to show the people who should be king after him (v. 20). Though an old man, he is stirred into action by the combined appeals of Bathsheba and Nathan. He immediately sent for the faithful three—Zadok, Nathan and Benaiah, and commanded them to anoint Solomon king (v. 1). God's Gracious Offer (vv. 4, 5).

Solomon made a lavish sacrifice to the Lord. The magnitude of the offering shows that he had strong impulses toward God and that he was unwilling to hold anything back from God. Following the sacrifice, the Lord made to him this gracious offer. This offer was not on the basis that the Lord cared for the number of animals, but the attitude of the man's heart toward him. "Ask what I shall give thee," placed very wide possibilities before the king. God, as it were, showed blank checks and turned them over to Solomon to fill in any amount that his heart desired. This was not a reckless act on the part of God, for He foreknew what was in Solomon's heart to ask. This offer to Solomon is no exceptional one, for opportunities equally limitless are placed before us. God is saying to every one of His children, "Ask and it shall be given you." The matter with its limitations is placed before us in John 1:7: "If ye abide in Me and My words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you." These unlimited offers are open to those who abide in Christ and let His words abide in them.

II. Solomon's Wise Choice (vv. 6-9). The Lord's gracious offer brought the king face to face with the responsibility of making a choice. There was no middle course open to him. God deals with all His children in such a way that a choice must be made by them. Solomon was keenly aware of the difficulty and responsibility of his position. David was a great king. For a young man to take up the work of an illustrious father seemed a task to completion is a most difficult task. Competently he ever succeed. Besides this, he had to deal with the disturbing elements which had been set in motion by the usurper, Adonijah. Being made to shoulder so great a responsibility so suddenly brought him to keenly feel his insufficiency. In his reply to God he pleaded that his being king was not of his own choice but an act of God's loving kindness. He argued that, since God had made him king, He was bound to qualify him to fill the place. All who have been called of God to fill positions of honor and trust can surely acquiesce that same business of faith. When called to positions of honor and trust we should humbly present ourselves before God for help. To feel ourselves unworthy and unfit for great and responsible work and to cast ourselves upon God for help is not cowardice, but a good sign that we shall not fail at the critical moment. Solomon's object in asking for wisdom was not for display but for the good of others.

III. God's Unstinted Gift (vv. 10-15). Solomon's speech pleased the Lord. God gave him more than he asked. Because he put wisdom first, God saw that he could be trusted with material good also. Christ saw the same thing when He said, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you" (Matt. 6:33). He who puts God and spiritual things first in time and importance can be trusted with temporal things. That which God promised him above what he asked was riches, honor and length of days. All who feel the lack of wisdom can go to God with confidence (Jas. 1:5). God blessed Solomon with a singularly comprehensive mind (1 Kings 4:29-34). He was a botanist, zoologist, architect, poet and moral philosopher.

Christian Life

"The perfection of the Christian life is less sight of oneself completely and to make everything of Christ."

No Man His Own Master

No man is his own master; he is either governed by Christ or governed by Satan.—Ephesians.

God Is Faithful

God is faithful, and He can never allow anyone to be empty in His blessed presence.—Deborah.

Humility

Humility is to make a right estimate of one's self.—Spurgeon.

Love Helps

Love has helped many a young couple to manage until common sense came to their aid.—Athenian Globe.

Ancients Played Hockey

That centuries before the beginning of the Christian era the youth of ancient Greece played games almost identical with the field hockey and volleyball of today is shown by bas-reliefs carved on stones unearthed near Athens.

WHEN I WAS TWENTY-ONE

BY JOSEPH KAYE

At 21—Maria Barrientes Had a Fitting and Sweet Revenge.

"WHEN I was a young girl my teacher took me to the great opera house in Barcelona, Spain, to sing for the conductor. I was a very small, unimpressive little girl, somewhat lost in the cavernous darkness of the great stage, but my teacher was very proud and very jealous of my ability.

"My voice must have been unusually good even then to challenge the opinions of the great orchestra leader of the fashionable opera house, but he was not impressed and said to the teacher, 'I do not like her voice; I do not care for it.'

"Some years later, when I had grown to be twenty-one, and of some celebrity, I was selected as the prima donna for the gala performance in honor of the coronation of the king of Spain. The conductor of this performance was the same man who had refused to believe in little Maria."

Maria Barrientes.
TODAY—Maria Barrientes is a prima donna of international fame.
She was the leading coloratura sa-piano with the Metropolitan opera in New York, until a few seasons ago, and created many famous roles.

FOR THE GOOSE—

If you notice a person's perfect manners, chances are they ain't perfect, or you wouldn't be noticed them.

You won't keep your neighbors from tiddin' about your dinner by duffin' it up with lace curtains.

Have'n' a ten thousand dollar income don't make you as independent as earnin' five.

FOR THE GANDER—

Don't keep a taxi chuggin' outside while you're called. A girl only likes a man to be a nut about one thing.

Don't think you're slighin' no new song when you tell a pretty girl she's pretty. But somehow, they always like the old songs.

Give a woman all you've got. Then you can demand the same in return.
And remember, the more you get a woman to give you, the more she's got for you.

(Copyright.)

Trouble

The reason you can't convince some people that trouble is fairly equally divided in this world and each has his share of it is because they know they have it all.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mankind's Advice

The age of bronze was ushered in when ancient men learned to produce a hard serviceable metal by mixing tin with copper.

Mixture in Carbon

The so-called carbon in an automobile engine is usually a mixture of street dust, metal from the engine and carbon. Most of the carbon probably comes from the lubricating oil.

Mother's Cook Book

If every one were wise and sweet,
And every one were jolly;
If every heart with goodness beat,
And every voice were merrily;
If none should grumble or complain,
And nobody should labor
In vain work, but each were fair
To love and help his neighbor—
Oh! what a happy world 'twould be
For you and me, for you and me.

SUMMERY GOOD THINGS

DURING the warm weather we like to think of juicy fruits, chilled dishes and desserts that are refreshing without being too much work.
With a small freezer one may prepare the most delicious desserts and have such variety that the family will always look forward to the dessert with anticipation.

If you wish to start off your dinner with something especially cooling and unusual, serve the honey dew or cantelope melons topped off with a tart sherbet or ice.

Lemon-ice.

Take one and one-third cups of sugar, three cups of water and one and one-half cups of lemon juice.
Boil the sugar and water five minutes, add the lemon juice and cool.
Freeze as usual. This will make one quart of ice.

When fine firm heads of lettuce can be secured, no other vegetable or fruit is needed to make a tempting salad.
With the following "dressing" dressing,
it will be fit for the most honored guest:

Thousand Island Dressing.

Take one-half cup of olive oil, the juice of half a lemon, the juice of half an orange, one tablespoonful of cayenne, three tablespoonfuls of chopped parsley, one fourth teaspoonful of mustard, six olives chopped or sliced, one tablespoonful of worcestershire sauce, one-half cupful of mayonnaise and one-fourth teaspoonful each of salt and paprika. Put all the ingredients into a jar, after having mixed the dry ingredients and dissolved them in the fruit juice. Put on a rubber and seal. Shake until the mixture is smooth. Set into the icebox to chill and shake again when ready to serve. Finely chopped hard-boiled egg, green pepper and various other vegetables may be added for variety.

Figaro Figs.

Steam pulled figs until plump and soft. Split one side and insert half a marshmallow and a few nuts. Roll in sugar and serve on a paper doily.
—hot plate.

Our Giant Airship Barn
ON THE prairie near Belleville, Ill., above the valley of the Mississippi river some miles east of St. Louis, is Scott field. This is Uncle Sam's army air base and air pilot school.

Here one is introduced to what unquestionably must be the world's record-breaking barn. This giant hangar is 810 feet long, 100 feet wide and 175 feet high. Its ponderous steel-reinforced and concrete counterbalanced door, together with their electricallycontrolled operating mechanism and tracks are said to weigh 750 tons per pair (there is one pair at either end) and require six minutes to open. The "catwalk" in this barn for airships is about 150 feet above the floor—a man swaying on it somewhat resembling a spider in a web.

Here one also sees many sorts of aircraft— aeroplanes, dirigibles and semi-rigid dirigible airships, as well as supplies and repair parts therefor in abundance and variety. Nearby is a group of warehouses in which are stored stocks of "air" materials—ready for any emergency which might happen along unexpectedly.

To this great central air base many of Uncle Sam's air pilots are sent for training, it having gained the reputation of being the hardest and most heart-breaking air school in the world.
The hangars, barracks, storehouses, gas tanks, offices, officers' houses and commissary cover a quarter of a section. Headquarters staff, faculty and students, commissioned officers and enlisted men are all under the command of a high officer of the service.

Electricity's Property

Electricity is said to require "more brains to make and less brains to use than any other commodity."

Black for Church Service

In Spain and in Italy it is not con-bright colors. Black is the national rule for such occasions.

THE CLOCK WORKER

By EVELYN GAGE BROWNE

THE man who works with his eyes on the clock, just gets to the end of the day. But he doesn't get far on the Road to Success. For he isn't headed that way.

He hasn't an ounce of genuine "push." Except to "push the clock." And then when other folks get ahead He loves to sneer and "knock."

He gives just so many hours a day. And he draws no joy from his work; The only thing he draws is his pay. And it's all that he doesn't shirk.

He puts nothing in—except his time. So gets nothing out at the end. Besides some paltry dollars and cents, Which he straightaway proceeds to spend.

It's the chap who renders service-plus. Not just by the hour or the day. But by all that's in him, and gives his best.

For the love of his work—not for pay;

Who's going to sit in the tender's chair? And get to the very top; For he's headed straight to be truly great. And nothing can make him stop. (Copyright.)

By JOSEPH KAYE

At 21—George Arliss Was Unknown in Metropolitan Circles.

AT THE age of twenty-one I was playing in a company touring the English provinces, my chief ambition being to achieve distinction in the London theaters.

Strangely enough it was an American that gratified this ambition. Charles Frohman—George Arliss.

TODAY—Mr. Arliss is probably the foremost character actor in America. It was Mr. Frohman who introduced Arliss to London audiences and by the same oddity in his career, it was in America that he achieved his first great success. This was in "The Darling of the Gods," a Belasco production.

His first appearance in this country was when he was brought over by Mrs. Pat Campbell to play with her in "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray." Ever since then, twenty years ago, he has continued playing only in the United States. It was only two seasons ago that he went to London to play his famous "Ruth of Buth," in "The Green Goddess."

After "The Darling of the Gods" Mr. Arliss' second big success was in "The Devil," the Franz Molnar play that made a sensation in all parts of the world and was considered one of the most daring plays of the time. His "Planchette" and "Hamlet" are other outstanding achievements.

Another Arliss play was Galsworthy's "Old English," in which, as an old lion of eighty, he thrilled New York.

THE WHY OF SUPERSTITIONS

By H. IRVING KING

SUN CURES

THE current superstitions which are survivals of sun-worship may not be more numerous than those derived from other sources, but in most cases they are more obvious as to their origin—they stand out clearer. One does not have to puzzle over their pedigree and devour long hours in research work to get even an inkling of their parentage; they, as a rule, proclaim themselves as clearly as did the brazen trumpets that announced at Heliopolis the rising god of day. It is an interesting fact that the relics of sun-worship should have come down to us so little changed. They are today practically what they were when the mummified pharaohs were as yet living kings. Here are a few of these superstitions gathered by the American Folk-Lore society:

1. Rubbing for rheumatism rub from left to right (sunwise). Rub the diseased part of a horse's shoulder with a corn-cob sunwise every third morning. Rub a wen, corn, etc., with the sun every day and the sun will draw out the pain. To cure a "cure" in a horse rub it with a bone at sunset. Cure a boil by having it rubbed at daybreak for nine successive days, rubbing sunwise. To cure a burn, rub sunwise with a finger moistened with saliva three times.

These are all purely and entirely survivals of sun-worship as is evident in the rubbing in the "ceremonial circle" that is, with the apparent course of the sun, as all ceremonies connected with the worship of the sun were performed, and in one case the setting of the time for the appeal to Osiris at sunrise and in another at sunset.

Perfect Comfort

The steering column is adjustable to suit your individual convenience

Buick for 1928 is extremely thoughtful of your comfort. One indication of this consideration is Buick's new steering column, which may be adjusted to the most comfortable position for women, as well as men.

Buick for 1928 pleases women because it is easier to drive—because it is more comfortable to ride in—because it is the style-leader among motor cars. That's why you see so many Buicks at fashionable gatherings, and on the smartest boulevards.
